Biography

Adrian Moore studied at the University of Bristol, where he was Organ Scholar, and at the Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester.

Adrian lives in Leamington Spa, where he teaches piano and organ privately and at Princethorpe College near Rugby. He is Organist of Holy Trinity Church in Leamington Spa and is very active as a solo performer, continuo player and accompanist on organ, piano and harpsichord. He is President of the Coventry and Warwickshire Organists' Association.

Adrian is the rehearsal pianist for Collegium, the choral society of St Mary's, Warwick, and for Daventry Choral Society, and plays regularly for the St James Singers and for vocal and instrumental soloists. He accompanies choirs in concerts and services in churches and cathedrals in this country and abroad and this year's engagements, though limited because of Covid-19, have included accompanying Sine Nomine Rugby who sang in St Albans Cathedral over a weekend at the beginning of April and who will be singing the services for a week in Canterbury Cathedral later in the summer - all being well!
