Emmanuel, God is with Us, on this first day of a new year we pray for new beginnings: for the seeds in the ground, for the bulbs in the earth, for the thoughts in our hearts today. May they be the innocent shoots of new life and love tomorrow. (C. Spiers)

As many shops continue to be affected by Covid restrictions, we pray for all whose hopes relied on a successful festive season. We remember those who worked for the companies that have scaled back, or folded entirely, adding Dorothy Perkins and Top Shop to the dismal litany. May those who have lost their jobs find that, along with your blessing, other opportunities will come their way. We pray for the success of WCC's redundancy support scheme, asking you to bless its staff and clients.

The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. (John 1.5) Lord Jesus, shine the light of your love into the darkness of loneliness, your healing into sickness, your comfort into grief, your courage into fear, your hope into despair... There is no darkness that will overcome your light. Amen, Lord, may it be so.

We saw his star and have come to worship him. (Mt. 2) With the Magi, we travel in hope, as honest seekers, ready to change the direction of our lives in search of the living presence of Jesus. We open up our treasures: 'gold of obedience, incense of lowliness and myrrh of our woundedness', trusting that all things offered with an honest heart will be redeemed, and that we shall be transformed to see anew and to glorify God in our daily acts of service.

Lord Jesus, strengthen and sustain all who are living with scoliosis, and their families who often feel powerless to help.
